Reports from our Members

LAZY T:

Tabatinga Monitor had a great spring, so Tresa will be expecting 4 foals next year. Monitor was imported in 2004.

LUSONATICA:

Cigana de Miami is pregnant, Al from La Paz Jivago (SW) Good news all around. Many feared the piroplasmosis treatment negatively affected shipping.

MM HORSE FARMS:

One new colt, chestnut at birth, was born to Ciranda de Miami.

HARAS LUCERO:

Their spring crop, two new foals, have arrived.

SUMMERWIND:

Luis Trujillo, Summerwind's trainer, will be traveling to Brazil at their invitation to advance his knowledge of gait training. He will be back in September.

TESOURO:

Folha and Erva are home. No more boarding means Pat has made the wonderful decision to keep Erva.

ABCCMM/USMMA MEETING

John Kelley, Lynn Kelley and Tresa Smith met with the new ABCCMM Presidente, Eduardo Simoes, while attending the Brazilian National Horse Show. We truly appreciated his time during this busy week. During the meeting, we discussed many topics. Here are a short recap.

ABCCMM Inspection Visit

- Our Thank you - a huge success story.
- ABCCMM inspection visit once each year.
- Training a US vet to become recognized as an ABCCMM inspector.

ABCCMM Rules

- Allow use of frozen semen in the export markets so that we could breed to Brazilian stallions.
- Use of non-Marchador mares to carry Mangalarga Marchador embryos in the U.S.
- Accept UC Davis as an ABCCMM DNA lab.

Support for the US Market

- Breed information, videos, website in English
- Endorsement/Recognition of USMMA.
- Events around Brazilian breeders here in the U.S. on business.
- ABCCMM office or designate located in the U.S.
